BIOGRAPHY

Adrienne is a litigator in our firm's Vancouver office, where she focuses her practice on business disputes, personal injury defence, insurance matters, and municipal law.

Adrienne is passionate about helping clients navigate complex legal challenges with a clear, solutions-oriented approach.

Before joining the firm, Adrienne articulated at the Vancouver office of an international law firm where she developed a strong interest in corporate commercial litigation and municipal matters. Her experience working with a sophisticated client base taught her the importance of attention to detail, client communication, and relentless preparation. Adrienne takes pride in tackling complex issues, crafting compelling arguments, and offering practical solutions for her clients.

Adrienne has a background in business and earned a Bachelor of Commerce (Honours) from the University of British Columbia in 2019. She earned her Juris Doctor from the Peter A. Allard School of Law at the University of British Columbia in 2023, where she honed her legal skills as a participant in the Business Law Clinic and gained practical experience working with the Sauder Real Estate Division. Adrienne's analytical mindset, hardworking nature, and commitment to client success make her a trusted advocate for those she represents.
